

Homework Week 7 – Problem 1

Develop an GUI interface for the BMI calculation. Firstly, you have to do a bit of research to see what the BMI (body mass index) is and how is calculated. Then you have to make the interface to read the weight and height and then calculate the BMI index. Two buttons Clear and Calculate should be used in this interface.

Note: It is similar to the money converter to a point.